

JOIN US TODAY IN SUPPORTING THE MINING INDUSTRY

The Women's Mining Coalition (WMC) Mission:

To advocate for today's modern domestic mining industry which is essential to our nation

- Founded in 1993, WMC has a 30-year track record of effective advocacy on Capitol Hill.
- WMC members work throughout the U.S. in all aspects of the mining industry, including for vendors, suppliers, and technical services providers.
- WMC's effective educational outreach provides lawmakers with reliable, factual, information about responsible domestic mining.

RECENT WMC ACTIVITIES

- WMC provided Fact Sheets to key Congressional lawmakers on coal use and critical minerals.
- WMC published numerous pro-mining op-eds.
- WMC testified at the May 2022 House Subcommittee on Energy & Mineral Resources hearing: "Reforming the Mining Law of 1872".
- WMC filed comments on onerous mining legislative proposals that would effectively thwart the nation's energy, infrastructure, and supply chain objectives.
- WMC publishes Mining News with Your Coffee – a Monday through Friday email update providing timely mining and energy news.

2023 PLANNED ACTIVITIES

- Continue Congressional advocacy efforts with Fact Sheets and virtual meetings dealing with key issues.
- Respond to legislative proposals that impact mining.
- Testify at Congressional hearings.
- Submit comments on rulemakings and policies that impact mining.
- Publish timely op-eds.
- Move forward with WMC 30th Anniversary Washington, DC Fly-In
